Dear Sir/ Ma

I would like to notify you that I am resigning from my position as Head of Laboratory/Head of operation of Nextcare Diagnostic Centre LTD effective March 31st, 2023.

Thank you very much for the opportunity you've given me to learn all about management. I have genuinely enjoyed my time with the company, and I believe the experience has taught me much about the leadership and how to effectively manage employees. I also want to specially thank the director, Mr. Adebisi, for the love and kindness he has showered me and my family while working with the company.

I wish Nextcare the best in operation. I can be reached at my personal Contact/WhatsApp number (07069311214), and I am willing to mentor younger laboratory scientists as needed. By April, I intend focusing completely on my personal business.

Concerning the 2-million-naira loan I took, my conversation with the accountant before he officially left the company suggests I owe only #800,000. From November 2021 to August 2022, I paid #800,000 based on #80,000 per monthly payment. The payment of $400,000 was made between September 2022 and December 2022 based on #100,000 per monthly payment. So, in total, I have paid a total of #1.2 million. Starting in April, I intend to pay #100,000 out of my own pocket on the 20th of each month until it is completed. Please let me know if there is miscalculation on my part.

Yours Faithfully,
